JUNIOR GREAT BOOKS

Monday, September 6. All students in Grades 2, 3, 4 & 5 are invited to join Junior Great Books. Junior Great Books is a fun, free and voluntary program where students meet once a week to discuss a new short story at lunch with their friends and parent volunteers. Not just for "good" readers, the program encourages kids to read at their own pace and talk about the stories. There are no grades although everyone is encouraged to attend and talk about the stories. If your child is interested, or you are interested in being a parent volunteer, please email John Allgood at libraryliaison@pcepta.org. The program starts the week of September 13 so please let me know by September 6th!

FROM LARRY THE CROSSING GUARD

Some of you might have noticed I had a sidekick this morning, a police officer. He was a nice guy. He ticketed four drivers, one for speeding, three for cell phone use. With that kind of success and because he enjoyed my company (just kidding) you can bet he will come back.

DRIVE CAREFULLY AND STOP USING YOUR CELL PHONE IN THE SCHOOL ZONE.

Pass the word.

Larry the Crossing Guard
